

Respected Principal, Fr P T Joseph S J, Vice Principal, Fr Devassya SJ and our Rector Fr Sunny Kunnappallil SJ, teachers and students from the participating schools and my dear friends.

A very warm good morning to each and everyone of you present on and off the dias.

Welcome to this amazing event being held here today at Loyola School.

Guidance is very important when it comes to school life and our Principal, Fr P T Joseph SJ and vice Principal Fr Devassya SJ have been doing just that. They have enabled us to perform well and bring out the best in us. Welcome fathers to this auspicious event.

Our rector Fr Sunny Kunnappallil SJ has also been a pillar of support for the school. Welcome father to this assembly.

You guys are the music makers.

The movers and shakers of the world.

The students are an embodiment for what the school stands for. I would like to welcome all the participants from 12 schools who have taken the time to prepare for this event.

Teachers are our beacons of encouragement. I would like to welcome all the teachers present here in this assembly.

In a competition, there are no losers.

Everyone who participates is a winner.

I wish everyone all the best.

On that note, it is now time for me to end my speech. Let us all hope to have a wonderful and healthy competition.

Magis!
